DALLAS HANSEN'S ENERGY WIN 30+ NATIONAL TITLE

By Tom Prendergast

The Dallas Hansen's Energy Brewers won the 30+ National Division Championship last night with an incredibly exciting come from behind victory over the Long Island Storm. Down 11-2 in the seventh, Dallas fought back to tie the score 11-11 and took the lead in the bottom of the eighth 12-11. The Storm tied the game at 12-12 in the top of the ninth but Dallas fought back again and won the game 13-12 with the winning run scoring on a close play at the

SURPRISE PROPOSAL AT HOME - SHE SAYS "YES!"

18+ MABL American Chicago Cubs players gather around team manager, Kevin Novak (kneeling) moments after he asked Amy Kerwin if she would marry him at Hohokam.

MANY SURPRISES AT THE MABL WORLD SERIES ON DAY TWO OF THE TOURNAMENT — INCLUDES A MARRIAGE PROPOSAL AT HOME PLATE

By Tom Prendergast

The MABL World Series began in earnest on Thursday, with two protests, several lopsided games, one bench clearing brawl, and a marriage proposal. The day started out with a double protest (see page three) and a surprise marriage proposal by the Chicago Cubs, Kevin Novak. Novak had talked girl friend Amy Kerwin into throwing out the first pitch before their game at Hohokam Stadium. Right after she tossed a strike to the plate, Kevin dropped to one knee, grabbed her left hand and slipped a pretty impressive diamond ring on her finger. His "will you marry me question" was answered with a resounding "Yes"! The two embraced at home plate while the players and spectators gave them a standing ovation. The rest of the day went relatively smooth as the weather was ideal for baseball. Most teams play two games today, the final day of MABL pool play and several teams need a DH sweep to qualify for the playoffs, which begin on Saturday.

DOUBLE FORFIET IN 18+ CENTRAL GAME IS A FIRSTBy Tom Prendergast*

On Thursday, two Central teams lodged protests in the same game for the same reason, citing the failure to bat all uniformed players. Both the Victor Valley Dodgers and Inland Pacific Indians failed to bat all uniformed players in the game that the Dodgers ended up winning 10-7. However, due to the fact that both teams failed to bat every player in uniform, the game was de-
