WILDCARD PLAYOFF SPOTS ADDED IN FEDERAL & CENTRAL

By Tom Prendergast

National MSBL President, Steve Sigler announced at the managers meeting on Sunday night that the number of playoff teams in 30+ Federal and 30+ Central would be expanded to include more teams. Sixteen teams in both divisions will qualify for the playoffs. In the 30+ Federal, the first and second place teams as well as six additional wildcard teams. In the 30+ Central Division, the first and second place teams along with four wildcard teams will qualify for the playoffs. If teams have identical records after pool play, the tie breakers include, head to head competition followed by least runs allowed. In the event of a tie after this, a three inning game will be played to determine who advances.

DUE TO THE LARGE NUMBER OF VISITORS TO SCORE-BOOK.COM'S AND THE MSBL NATIONAL WEB SITE, INDIVIDUAL PLAYER STATS WILL NOT BE AVAILABLE UNTIL LATER TODAY. WE'RE SORRY FOR THE DELAY!

PATRIOTISM ON DISPLAY AT THE 2001 MSBL 30+ WS

The 30+ Federal Long Island Tides took time out during the seventh inning stretch yesterday at Phoenix Municipal Stadium for a special rendition of the National Anthem.

PLAYERS ON TEAMS FROM NEW YORK LEAD THE WAY IN SHOWING THEIR SUPPORT FOR THE COUNTRY AND THE FLAG DURING GAMES

By Tom Prendergast

"You're a grand old flag, You're a high flying flag And forever in peace may you wave. You're the emblem of The land I love. The home of the free and the brave. Every heart beats true 'neath the Red, White and Blue, Where there's never a boast or brag. Should auld acquaintance be forgot, keep your eye on the grand old flag." That great song from the 1942 movie classic, Yankee Doodle Dandy, certainly epitomizes the spirit demonstrated by the New York teams participating in the 2001 MSBL World Series. Every team has players with flags on their uniforms, caps, helmets, gloves and bat bags. Several of the teams have been displaying an American flag in their dugout during games.

The 30+ Federal Division Long Island Tides have certainly led the way in showing their on field support. When the seventh inning stretch rolls around, these guys grab the flag and head to the infield, where they stand at attention during the playing of either "God Bless America" or the National Anthem. The players, spectators and umpires all stand at attention during this most fitting tribute. Last week, players from all across the country showed the same kind of patriotism and love for their country in addition to their passion for baseball.

High Tech...Low Ball

(MSBL WORLD SERIES LIGHTER SIDE)

By Clyde E. Miller

One of the best kept secrets in baseball is hiding in the lower levels of Tempe Diablo Stadium. The MSBL has leased a high tech robotic pitching simulator and is testing its capabilities even now during the 2001 MSBL/MABL World Series. This $250,000 machine is capable of mimicking the speed, spin and location of ANY pitcher in baseball...say for MSBL Assistant Director, who's arm tournament. Want side curveball? Click menacing 54 mph cut grammed and ready Here's how it plate 60 feet away, large video screen generated pitcher mer in the computer mound. Seconds confusing windup, the exact spot (for Steve that is somewhere between his shoulder and the ground) where the ball would normally leave the pitcher's hand...Wham! A shutter opens on the screen and the baseball (an official Rawlings MSBL/WS 2001) comes lobbing out. Pretty dawg gone realistic. It even simulates a pitchers distinctive grunts, groans and cursing. There is a separate pitcher arguing with umpire mode. There are even fights you can program in.

How accurate is it? Hang a dinner plate over the strike zone and the machine will shatter it. (Unless of course you are in the Rosenberg mode and then it just kind of bounces off). The machine's unique wheels can twist, spin and deliver the ball in any way known to pitchers. The machines ability to literally clone pitchers makes it versatile in it's ability to get specific about pitchers MSBL hitters might be facing this tournament. (Rumor has it...and it is only a rumor. That even MSBL President and Pitcher Steve Sigler is programmed into the machine. However, the code to access that particular mode...232122?... is held closely by the World Series Tournament Staff.)

So pitchers...if someone in the stands is video taping you. Be aware you might just
