FRIDAY OCTOBER 26th, 2001

2001 MSBL WORLD SERIES TRADE SHOW OPENS TODAY AT 2:00p

By Tom Prendergast

The 2001 MSBL Baseball Trade Show includes participation by almost every leading baseball sporting goods manufacturer in the nation along with a host of smaller companies. Anaconda, Rawlings and Easton to BSN, Wilson, Louisville Slugger and so many more—the MSBL's show has become a key event for many of these companies. They are attending to meet you, and display their latest and most popular product lines, as well as offers not available in retail stores. They're only here for three days, so be sure to stop by Tempe Diablo Stadium for this year's exciting MSBL Baseball Trade Show! The show runs through Sunday.

30+ PLAYOFFS GET UNDERWAY TODAY IN CONTINENTAL, FEDERAL AND CENTRAL — WHILE FATHER / SON WORLD SERIES CONTINUES

By Tom Prendergast

After six games in four days, Thirty plus teams will now begin the playoff round which is much less forgiving. Set up as a single elimination round, teams must keep on winning to advance. This of course is nothing new and the MSBL World Series format doesn't have the time or the fields to have any kind of prolonged playoff round. Teams fortunate to be playing today and those that keep on winning will end up in the championship game on Saturday. Two teams from each division will be left standing and they will square off against each other in their divisions championship game. As the Thirty plus World Series was winding down, the Father and Son competition was just getting started. Five National Division teams and sixteen American Division teams will play another double header today to see which teams will advance to the playoff round on Saturday. The Father / Son tournament wraps up with it's championship games on Sunday, during 40/50/60 check in.
