2002 MABL Champions Crowned in Four Division

With grins on their faces, the MABL American Champion Southern California Titans pose for a victory photo after their 10-2 victory over the Long Island Sundevils yesterday.

Storm, Titans, Rockies, and A's Go Home Champions After Competitive Week

By Joel Becker

As one team from Long Island celebrated victory, another went home somewhat less than satisfied as, after a tough, short week of pool play and playoffs, four teams were crowned MABL World Series Champions yesterday on various fields at Tempe Diablo Stadium. In the National Division championship, the Long Island Storm scored often, whipping the Kansas City Titans 12-3. In the American Division, the Southern Cal Titans used a couple of big innings to get by the Long Island Sundevils 10-2. The Federal Division saw the Bay Area Rockies beat up on the Elmendorf Eagles, 18-9. And in the Central Division, the Scottsdale Silver Sneaker Athletics took a page out of the So Cal Titans playbook, using a big ninth inning to seal their 10-4 victory over the Lake Arrowhead Roadkill.

We've now crowned 8 champions in the WS so far...15 more to go!
