Father & Son Playoffs Start - 28+ Championships At Papago Park Complex

By Tom Prendergast

An exciting 28+ MSBL World Series (part II) wraps up today with three championship games at Papago Park beginning at 10:00a. In the Continental Division, the LA Grays, who went 4-2 in pool play, take on the Columbus A's, who finished 4-1-1. In the Federal Division Championship game, the LA Westside Cubs (4-2) play the Tri Valley Red Sox (5-1). This year's Cinderella wildcard team, the Kansas City Giants (4-1-1), take on the top seed in Central division 1, the LA Bulls (5-1). All of the winners will receive individual rings specially made by Josten's.

The fifth annual Father and Son World Series playoffs begin today with both the National and American playoffs. Both championship games will be played on Sunday. This division is quickly becoming the most popular of all World Series events and in the future we might have to call it the "Extended Family" World Series.

Tonight, the MSBL World Series recognizes its on field champions at the Annual Awards Banquet held at the Rustler's Rooste (located at the Pointe So Mountain). Guests may begin arriving at 6:30p for cocktails, dinner will be served at 7:15p.

"Iron Man" Cole Shows No Sign Of Wearing Down

By Joel Becker

Cal Ripken, Jr., take a step back. There's another iron man on the block this week, and his marathon performance is certainly nothing to sneeze at.

Seattle Mariners' Pitcher Don Cole, playing in the Father-Son American Division, continued his amazing display of endurance, pitching another 17 innings today in pool play action. The 60-year-old has now hurled 34 of his team's 36 innings played over two days in this tournament, compiling a 2-1 record and a 1.59 Earned Run Average (6 earned runs allowed in four games).

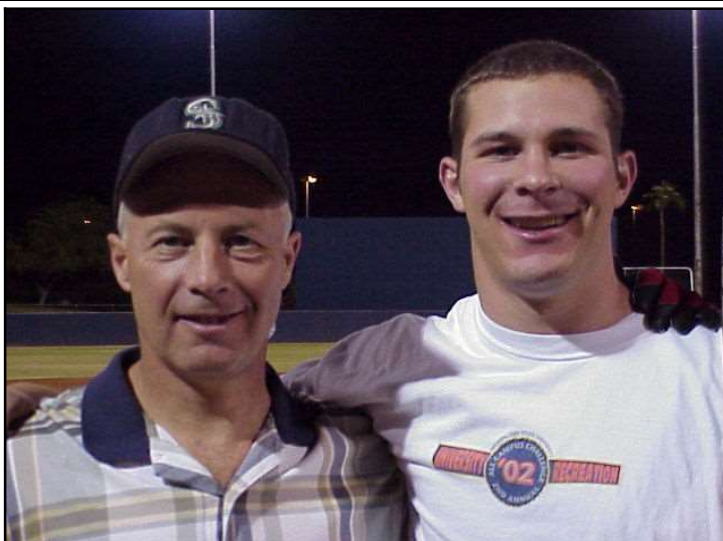

What makes this feat even more incredible (if that's possible) is the fact that Cole is accomplishing this marathon performance just three years after surgery on his right rotator cuff. Apparently, Cole is feeling no ill effects from the surgery. I guess we all know one orthopedic surgeon who'll be getting a fruit basket for Christmas this year.

The Mariners begin playoff action today.
