MSBL Teams Battle It Out Today For A Shot At The Championship Game

By Tom Prendergast

Yesterday was one of the more interesting days in MSBL 16 year WS history. For example, in their last pool play game the Dallas Brewers defeated the Sacramento Giants in an exciting come-from behind win to clinch the fourth and final playoff spot in the highly competitive 28+ National Division yesterday. In the 28+ American Division the Grand Rapids-Koster & Devries team managed to qualify for a playoff spot, despite going 1-5 and allowing 67 runs. They beat out the Portland Blue Sox who finished with the same record but allowed 68 runs. The two division winners in the American division each received a bye and will play the winner of a first round game this afternoon.

In the 28+ Continental 2 Division, four teams started the day with identical 3-2 records and all of the Continental games yesterday were crossover division games from teams in the other division. In the end eight of the twelve Continental teams advanced to the playoffs. All of the 28+ Championship games will be played on Friday.

The MABL World Series started yesterday as all 57 teams played at least one game. Each MABL team will play 5 games in 3 days of pool play. The MABL playoffs will be played on Saturday while the 18+ Championship games will take place on Sunday.
