MABL World Series Wraps Up With Championships

MABL Chicago Lookouts runner John Knauss (right) slides home with the winning run in the bottom of the ninth before catcher Dennis Watt catches the ball in the 18+ Federal Championship game yesterday on Tempe #2. His run gave his team an exciting 6-5 come from behind victory over the Orange County Astros.

Exciting Endings Highlight MABL World Series Championship Games

The Tinsel Town Terror captured their first 18+ National Championship title with a 4-2 victory over the perennial runners up, the Kansas City Titans, Sunday at Tempe Diablo Stadium. The Terror built up a 4-0 lead and then hung on for the win.

In the 18+ American Division title game the Las Vegas Heat beat the Pacific Coast Braves 11-4. The Heat offense was too much to handle as they banged out 20 hits, six of them extra bases while holding the Braves to just eight hits and four runs.

Chicago Lookouts manager Joe Gargano drove in the game winning run with an rbi single in the bottom of the ninth to give his team an exciting 6-5 come from behind victory in the 18+ Federal Division championship game over the Orange County Astros.

The Inland Pacific Angels scored three runs in the bottom of the eighth inning to defeat the Long Island Cardinals 12-10 in the high scoring 18+ Central Division championship game. All of the championship team pictures are available on the scorebook.com website.
