MABL Federal Playoff Qualifiers Changed Due To Thursday's Rain

By Tom Prendergast

Thursday's rain not only played havoc with the schedule but also created a real problem with the Federal League playoff qualifiers. The main goal was to insure that each Federal team got to play all 5 games. In order to achieve that, several games had to be scheduled for Saturday morning. That meant that the Federal playoffs could only go two rounds, which required a reduction (down to eight) in the number of teams that would advance.

So now, in addition to the five division winners the next best three records will qualify as wild cards. The revised playoff schedule is listed inside and it's also on the MSBL National website as well as the Scorebook.com site.

Scottsdale Stadium Rules: For All MSBL/MABL WS Teams

All teams and players need to be sure that they abide by the rules posted at Scottsdale Stadium. These include:

15 minutes of infield practice per team to begin no earlier than 10:30a or 6:30p depending on the game time.

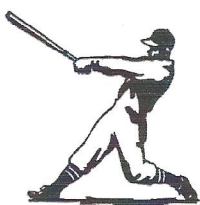

All pre-game stretching, throwing and running should be kept 10 feet inside the foul line territory.

No metal cleats are allowed to be worn anywhere but on the playing field.

One bullpen (2 pitching mounds) will be available each game. The ground crew will notify the teams which side (1st or 3rd base) is to be used.

No glass is permitted on the field.

Rain Causes Complete MABL Schedule Overhaul For Today

A soggy Tempe Diablo Stadium after 2 inches of rain drenched the field on Thursday.

A complete listing of all the re-scheduled games for today and Saturday are listed inside.

Super Championship Games Between MABL & MSBL Winners Cancelled

By Tom Prendergast

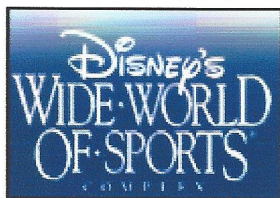

The rain that every local weatherman had been predicting for two-days finally made it and dropped about two inches of rain on the greater Phoenix metropolitan area. If there was any good news, it was that the rain didn't start until after all of the morning games had been completed. Even a couple of early afternoon games were able to get in 5 innings before their field became un-playable. By three o'clock yesterday afternoon the WS staff realized that the only solution was a complete re-do of the schedule, which would allow every MABL team to play their five pool play games. This task began at 4:00p and didn't get finalized until around 11:00p last night.

In addition to having to cancel the Home Run Hitting Contest (on Friday night) the staff had to extend the normal hours that we usually use and all remaining pool play games are now 7 innings (with a 2 hour and 30 minute time limit - no new inning can start after that). And unfortunately, the Super Championship games between the 18+ National / American winner vs 28+ National / American winner had to be cancelled.
