VABL Dawgs Capture 28+ Continental Championship Title With Win Over Grays

28+ National And American Final Games Set For Today

By Tom Prendergast

The VABL Dawgs defeated the LA Grays to win the 28+ Continental Championship title last night 9-6 at Tempe Diablo Stadium. The Dawgs had to come from behind after the LA Grays had built a 4-1 lead after three innings. Playing some inspired baseball the Dawgs scored three runs in the fifth and two more in the sixth to re-take the lead. Despite a chilly night, the players and crowd at Tempe Diablo Stadium didn't seem to mind. The aroma from the Western Bar-B-Q was enticing and several hundred players stopped in for dinner.

Earlier in the afternoon the 28+ National semi-finals took place on Tempe fields 2 and 3. The Atlanta Astros defeated the Scottsdale Mudcats 6-1 while the Dallas Brewers scored a run in the bottom of the ninth to defeat the Tri Valley Cubs 6-5. Atlanta will get a chance to defend their title against the Dallas Brewers this morning at Phoenix Municipal Stadium.

In the 28+ American division the Oklahoma City Braves beat Scottsdale Finest 8-7 and the Chicago Reds got by Grand Rapids 11-10. This afternoon the Braves will meet the Chicago Reds in the 28+ American Championship game, which will also be played at Phoenix Municipal Stadium. The MABL playoffs get underway this afternoon and all four of the MABL Championships will be played on Sunday, October 24th.
