WS Trade Show Vendors Don't Let A Little Rain Get In The Way!

By Tom Prendergast

Several Trade Show vendors showed up at Tempe Diablo Stadium yesterday confident that the rain would let up and the players would come. They were right. Despite the rain and cooler than normal temperatures business was brisk for the vendors that did show up and spent the day huddled in their tents. Around 4:00p the rain finally stopped and the sun came out. Today the Trade Show vendors will return from 12:00n til 9:00p. Because of the rain the Trade Show will be open on Saturday from 11:00a til 7:00p.

WS Staff Scrambles To Adjust All Schedules For Today

Once again the tarps were on the field at Tempe Diablo Stadium as the rains fell yesterday. A complete listing of all the re-scheduled games for today and Saturday are listed inside.

Western Bar-B-Que Set For Tonight At Tempe Diablo Stadium

All Divisions Re-scheduled Games Have Been Posted On Scorebook.com

By Tom Prendergast

Thursday was a tough day for everybody involved in the 2004 MSBL World Series as the rains returned and washed out all 82 games that were scheduled for yesterday. Players had no place to go, the vendors had a tough time setting up their booths at the Trade Show and the phones at the WS office just kept on ringing. Throughout the day at the WS office there was hope that the rain would let up and we could salvage some night games. That didn't happen. By mid-afternoon the WS staff was busy re-scheduling all of the games for today and Saturday. After last week, they're starting to get pretty good at that task.

Almost every field complex was confident that they would be able to get their fields in playable condition no later than noon today. After eight solid hours of re-working the team schedules, the staff contacted every team and notified them of the revised schedule. It was also posted on Scorebook.com. Because of the projected rain yesterday the MSBL Western Bar-B-Que was pushed back until tonight (from 6:00p - 10:00p) and the Trade Show will be open on Saturday from 11:00a til 7:00p at Tempe Diablo Stadium.
