Atlanta Astros Win The 28+ Continental Championship

The Atlanta Astros after winning the 28+ Continental Championship game against the Tri Valley Cardinals 10-3 yesterday at Tempe Diablo Stadium. It's the Astros fifth WS title.

MABL Playoff Games Begin Today - Championship Games On Sunday

Rawlings National Championship Prize Money (Championship $7,500 - Runner Up $2,500)
By Tom Prendergast

The Atlanta Astros captured their fifth MSBL World Series Championship trophy with an impressive 10-3 victory over the Tri Valley Cardinals. Atlanta pitcher Joe Rodriguez was on the mound for the win. He struck out nine and allowed just two earned runs. Jay Kibbie took the loss for the Cardinals. The Astros broke the game open in the bottom of the fifth when they scored five runs to take a commanding 7-2 lead.

Today the MABL, Rawlings National Division and the 28+ Wood teams playoff games take place. Teams will supply the baseballs for the first playoff game, after that the balls will be provided by the umpires. No games today can end in a tie, or be called due to lights that go out or sprinklers that go on! If that happens, please call the World Series office and inform them of the situation.

The prize money for the Rawlings National Championship teams gets divided two ways. $7,500 for the winning team and $2,500 for the losing team. All of the other championship winners get individual rings, hats and other prizes. After the championship game, all of the players (on both teams) will come to Tempe Diablo Stadium to collect their prizes and for the teams that win, the players will order their WS rings with Jostens rep, Gene Erikson.
