Second Week Of The MSBL World Series Gets Underway

28+ Federal Long Island Mets base runner Brian Sigler #23, scores the winning run in the bottom of the ninth after his team rallied for an exciting 13-12 come-from-behind victory.

48+ Wood American Tri Valley United Pitcher Tosses No-Hitter

Last At-Bat A Big Advantage On Day One Of The World Series

By Tom Prendergast

Tri Valley United Nasty Boys pitcher, Fernando Narajano, pitched a heck of a game for his team yesterday morning at Fitch. Narajano shut down the Santa Monica Padres 7 - 0, and he struck out 12, while issuing just one base-on-balls. In all, he faced just 28 batters in a nine inning game. Come-back wins were the order of the day on Monday, no less than 10 games were won during the home teams' last at bat.

According to the National Weather Service, the greater metropolitan Phoenix area is likely to see some residual moisture from Hurricane Paul, scheduled to arrive off the coast of Mexico on Wednesday. Depending on the severity of the rainfall, its quite possible that we would have to postpone some games on Tuesday and or Wednesday. If that happens the World Series staff would make every possible effort to re-schedule any pool play games that are lost due to rain. In case that does happen, updates and schedule revisions will be posted on the national MSBL website and on scorebook.com. The very popular MSBL World Series Trade Show opens Thursday October 26th at Tempe Diablo Stadium.
