MABL And 25+ Wood Bat Division Playoffs Take Place Today

Great Weather Just One Of Many Highlights For Teams During Week 1

By Tom Prendergast

The first five championships will be decided today, with the 50+ / 60+ division finals. Each of these winners will receive a trophy and all of the individual players will receive rings. One of the main reasons that compels teams to compete so hard is the quest for a ring. In all more than 34 teams will go home with rings this year. On Sunday the final championship games of week one will be played while the 35+ / 45+ WB divisions begin pool play games.

Competition in week one was pretty even across the board. With few exceptions all of the teams had the opportunity to win on any given day. And once again, good pitching played a huge part in the success of the teams that won. Participating in a 6 game tournament with less than 10 hurlers always puts those teams at a disadvantage. As always the fields in the Valley were outstanding as usual. The new Goodyear complex received rave reviews and once it's completed it will be one of the best in the area.

The weather was ideal for baseball, not too hot or windy and the evening games were just right. In our twenty first year, it's nice to know that despite the woes in the economy, and troubling times for just about every major industry, that at least for a while players can get away and enjoy the game of baseball, like it was meant to be played.
