MSBL / MABL World Series Remembers Hall Of Fame Umpire - Hal Kaiser

By Tom Prendergast

On June 21st, of this year longtime MSBL / MABL World Series umpire Hal Kaiser died after a lingering battle with Cardiovascular Obstructive Pulmonary Disease. He was 64 years of age and during last years WS both his health and strength were noticeably on the decline. Despite that, Hal insisted on keeping up the duties that he had done for the past 20 years of this event. By day he was an on field official, by night a WS office staff member.

In 1999 Hal received the umpire of the year award at the MSBL World Series banquet, in recognition of his dedication and exceptional qualities as an official. Six years later, Steve Sigler selected Hal for induction into the MSBL World Series Hall of Fame. Hal is the first and only WS MSBL / MABL umpire to receive this honor. He will be missed by all of us who were lucky enough to know him. Note: A trust fund has been set up for Hal's grandson, Ricky. To contribute, make your checks payable to Account # 940988593.

2008 MSBL / MABL Trade Show Thursday At Tempe Diablo Stadium

Father & Son WS Gets Underway With National, American and Central Divisions

By Tom Prendergast

The much anticipated annual MSBL / MABL World Series Trade Show begins tomorrow at Tempe Diablo Stadium with a full slate of vendors, ready to show off the latest equipment and sports wear that the industry offers. In addition to that all of the vendors have agreed to donate selected items for a daily raffle that Trade Show organizer Rich Rosenbloom sponsors each day of the Trade Show. Each visitor receives a raffle ticket for every booth that they stop by and at the end of the night, between 10 - 15 lucky players win a prize.

On the field the action picks up today with several playoff spots still available in most of the 35+ / 45+ WB divisions. In fact, for several teams today's game will be just like a playoff game. It's important to remember for teams on the bubble to try and keep your runs allowed down. The first tie-breaker for each division after head-to-head, is the runs allowed category. The playoff schedule will be posted on the MSBL national website and scorebook.com.

The ever popular Father & Son (nephew, uncle and grandpa's too) World Series starts on Thursday with each team playing four games in two days. This year the Father & Son World Series will again include three divisions, National, American and Central.
