Day One Of The WS Trade Show A Hit With Players And Vendors

65+ WB Divisions And Father & Son Pool Play Games Conclude Today

By Tom Prendergast

Tempe Diablo Stadium was an incredibly busy place yesterday as soon as the World Series Trade Show opened at 2:00pm. The aroma of freshly cooked burgers filled the air in and around the stadium. The great weather continued for the ninth day in a row, with temperatures in the mid to upper 80's and blue skies as far as the eye could see.

On the field the 35+ and 45+ semi-finals were coming to an end while the 25+ Federal and Central division pool play games were ending. 65+ divisions and Father and Son pool play games wrap up today. All of those playoff games will be played on Saturday.

This morning the 35+ / 45+ division championship games will be played at the Tempe Diablo Complex, while the 25+ Federal and Central playoff games are being played at several different locations. The Trade Show continues today at Tempe Diablo Stadium starting this morning. On Saturday night the annual World Series Awards Banquet takes place at the Rustler's Rooste on Saturday night, located behind the Arizona Grand Hotel at the corner of Baseline and I-10. The guest speaker will be former MLB player and manager, Bob Boone. To purchase additional banquet tickets please contact the WS office staff (602) 438-0242 or stop by the office in person at Tempe Diablo Stadium (second floor).
