2008 MSBL / MABL National & World Series Hall of Fame Inductees

By Tom Prendergast

One of the best things about the MSBL and MABL World Series, besides the weather, great fields and local Phoenix hospitality is the annual announcement of new inductees into the National and WS Hall of Fame. Since 1998 a special and select group of guys have received the highest honor a league can bestow.

League President and founder Steve Sigler has for the last decade selected and recognized individuals from all over the country who have been instrumental in the growth and success of their local MSBL and MABL leagues. The overall success and popularity of the league in so many different communities across the United States is based on strong leadership both continued on page 3

By Tom Prendergast

Today week 2 officially comes to a close after the 65+ WB and 3 Father & Son division championship games. Yesterday the Venice A's won the 25+ Federal championship title while the Chicago Seminoles won the 25+ Central title. And the weather has been just great. Last night at the annual Awards Banquet National MSBL President Steve Sigler inducted 21 year WS veteran Gary Firestone (LA MSBL) into the MSBL / MABL World Series Hall of Fame. Gary thanked Steve for the opportunity to continue playing and stated that he felt this league was the best "adult baseball" league around.

HardBall Magazine publisher, Dan Piro made an appearance and looked pretty good after having been diagnosed with pancreatic cancer in January. He has done remarkably well and he's on a strict diet, which he credits with keeping him going. While he's dropped a few pounds he looks good and was happy to be in attendance. The guest speaker was Bob Boone (former MLB player and manager). Presently he's the assistant GM of Player development for the Washington Nationals. Boone was one of the better speakers that we've had and was very friendly and engaging with the crowd. He said it was much easier to be a player than a manager, and that it's much more difficult to get a team to come together today than it was twenty years ago because the players and their families spent more time together before and after games. The Trade Show opens today at 12:00n and wraps up around 9:00p tonight.

2008 MSBL / MABL Hall of Fame Members
nationally and locally.

Early on Sigler understood that a the success of the MSBL and MABL in each community would depend a great deal on the local league President. For the past 21 years, these men have been the driving force behind the pronominal success of the league. So every year Steve selects members to the National Hall of Fame and the World Series HOF.

This year's National Hall of Fame inductees include; Jon Garbacz (Twin City MSBL & MABL), Charles McCroskey (Columbus MABL), Glenn Garrison (Central North Carolina MSBL), Mike Zamba (San Jose MSBL) and Brett Mandel (Greater Philadelphia MABL). This years WS Hall of Fame Inductees are Gary Firestone (LA MSBL), Mike Knittel (San Francisco MSBL), Frank Sansone (So Cal MABL) and Joel Weinstein (Monterey MSBL).

Congratulations to each new member on your induction into the Hall of Fame.
