MSBL World Series Ends On A High Note With 8 New Championships

Former MLB Star Maury Wills Was The Toast Of The Awards Banquet On Saturday Night By Tom Prendergast

The twenty-first MSBL / MABL World Series came to a successful conclusion on Saturday night at the annual awards banquet. President and founder Steve Sigler congratulated all of the new champions from that day and saluted the participants. He thanked the WS staff for their tireless efforts in making this years event one of the best. Special guest speaker Maury Wills was outstanding and very entertaining as he spoke about his playing days in major league baseball and what he's doing now. However, he received a standing ovation when he spoke of his battle to overcome drug and alcohol addiction. His passion for the way he played the game and his life long devotion to the sport were certainly on display and the crowd was just thrilled to hear his stories.

Earlier in the day the San Antonio Yankees won the 55+ Central championship while the San Diego Berry's captured the 55+ American division title. The Tribe knocked off the LA Athletics 13-7 to win the 55+ National trophy. In a first for the tournament, the Tri Valley 40's won a best of three series, two games to one over San Jose and the Houston Yankees defeated Team Victory in a nail bitter, 5-4 to win the 45+ Mountain division. In the days most emotional victory, the Long Island Rangers beat the Utah Braces 14-2 to win the 35+ Central. The San Antonio Bulldogs won the 35+ Central division with a 3-2 win over the Inland Empire Dawgs. And the Chicago North Cubs took home the 35+ Mountain trophy.
