Welcome Bar-B-Que Features Steak Dinner Serves By Hooters Girls! Head To Head Competition & Least Runs Allowed Category Tie Breakers

By Tom Prendergast

The playoffs start today and what a better way to celebrate a win or a tough loss than to head back to Tempe Diablo Stadium for the annual MSBL / MABL Welcome Bar-B-Que. Steak is on the menu tonight and several Trade Show exhibitors will be setting up their tables a week early so that players in week one get a chance to see the latest in new products. Dinner will be served starting at 4:00p, in the left field concourse so don't miss this great chance to spend one more night with your teammates at the ball park!

While this is the final day of pool play for the MABL and 25+ Wood Bat teams, the 50+ and 60+ teams are participating in the playoffs. On Saturday the championship games will be held while the 18+ and 25+ teams will begin their playoffs. They will have their championship games on Sunday. Today's final pool play games will be just like a playoff game for some teams. With that in mind it's probably worth mentioning to the teams on the bubble that after head-to-head competition, the next tie-breaker is least runs allowed. So if you are in a 6 or 7 division where every team doesn't get to play all of the teams, it's a smart move to try and limit the number of runs your team gives up. One or two runs might be just be the difference.
