Great Weather & Competition Highlight Week 1 WS Games

The 18+ MABL Central Twin City Cardinals could hardly contain their excitement over winning their first championship with a 7-4 win over the San Antonio Titans yesterday morning.

Atlanta Astros' Marty Kelly Inducted Into WS Hall Of Fame

The 18+ Aluminum Atlanta Astros defeated the So Cal Snappers 2-1 in one of the very best championship games played in recent memory. Assistant tournament director, Mike LeCocq who watched the game described it as "almost like watching a high level college game". The Astros allowed just three hits and the So Cal Snappers gave up 4. In the 18+ WB National game Brooklyn Sports Fever won their second WS title with a convincing 11-1 win over the Arizona Wildcats. In the 18+ Federal championship game the Las Vegas Dirtbags beat the MSL All Stars 11-4. Probably the most excited team of the day was the victorious MABL Central Twin City Cardinals who beat the San Antonio Titans 7-4. After the last out all of the players dashed to the mound and ended up chanting and hugging in the middle of the infield.

In the 25+ WB National Division the Salt Lake Spartans held off the Paso Robles Nightmare Killz-it, 3-1 to win the championship trophy. The 25+ WB American Central Coast Bulls shutout the Tucson Reapers 9-0 to capture the championship while the Ogden Vipers held off the Philadelphia Stars 5-2 to win the 25+ WB Central Division championship.

Starting today with week 2 pool play games, the WS office will again be broadcasting "live" games over the internet. Play-by-play announcer Joel Becker is back for his third year behind the microphone, from the press box at Tempe Diablo Stadium.
