2009 MSBL / MABL Trade Show Thursday At Tempe Diablo Stadium

Father & Son WS Gets Underway With National, American and Central Divisions

By Tom Prendergast

The much anticipated annual MSBL / MABL World Series Trade Show begins tomorrow at Tempe Diablo Stadium with a full slate of vendors, ready to show off the latest equipment and sports wear that the industry offers. In addition to that all of the vendors have agreed to donate selected items for a daily raffle that Trade Show organizer Rich Rosenbloom sponsors each day of the Trade Show. Each visitor receives a raffle ticket for every booth that they stop by and at the end of the night, between 10 - 15 lucky players win a prize.

On the field the action picks up today with several playoff spots still available in most of the 35+ / 45+ WB divisions. In fact, for several teams today's game will be just like a playoff game. It's important to remember for teams on the bubble to try and keep your runs allowed down. The first tie-breaker for each division after head-to-head, is the runs allowed category. The playoff schedule will be posted on the MSBL national website and scorebook.com.

The ever popular Father & Son (nephew, uncle and grandpa's too) World Series starts on Thursday with each team playing four games in two days. This year the Father & Son World Series will again include three divisions, National, American and Central.
