Week 2 Play Wraps Up Today With 65+ & F/S Championship Games

Sacramento Silverbacks Pitcher Brian Creley Released From The Hospital

By Tom Prendergast

Spectacular weather returned on Saturday to the Valley as week two games wrapped up. The 25+ Federal and Central championship games were played at Tempe Diablo Stadium as the Trade Show continued on the concourse. In the 25+ Federal game the Tacoma Tugs scored early and often and beat the Venice A's 10-2. For the week the Tugs went 7-0-1. The Oregon Outlaws were down 6-1 to the St. Thomas Tropical Waves before staging an exciting 8-7 come from behind win, scoring two runs in the bottom of the ninth for a walk off win and a 25+ Central championship trophy.

But the best news of the day came off the field when Father / Son Sacramento Silverbacks pitcher, Brian Creley was released from the hospital. After getting x-rays, Brian's arm injury was diagnosed as a complete radial fracture of the humerus bone. So it's probably going to be a long and hopefully complete recovery for him during the off season.

Today the last five championships from the week will be played, 65+ Divisions, National and American, and the three Father and Son divisions (National, American & Central). This evening at 5:30p, young Wes Sigler throws out the ceremonial first pitch for week three.
