HardBall Magazine Publisher Dan Piro

received the highest honor the MSBL can bestow on one of its members when he became just the eighth recipient of the very prestigious MSBL "Lifetime Achievement" award on Sunday afternoon. Because he was unable to attend this years World Series, the presentation ceremony was videotaped, (which will be sent to him, along with his award). MSBL President & Founder, Steve Sigler, made the presentation along with three other "Lifetime" recipients Dennis Swartout, John DeBenedictis and Tom Prendergast.

Future MABL prospect, Wesley Sigler throws out the ceremonial first pitch to Long Island Mets catcher, Wayne Goldman before the first game of week three at Tempe Diablo Stadium between the LI Mets and the San Antonio Bombers. The Bombers won the game 7 - 6.

WS Trade Show Concludes With Welcome Bar-B-Que At The Stadium

Spectacular Weather Greets 76 MSBL Teams Arriving For Week Three

By Tom Prendergast

Sunday was an unusually busy day at the 22nd MSBL / MABL World Series. Week two concluded with five championship games being played in the morning and afternoon while the annual Trade Show and welcome bar-b-que were going on at the stadium. Starting at 8:00am the first of 76 teams were arriving for practice while their managers were checking in and picking up the team merchandise. In addition to that, MSBL / MABL President and Founder, Steve Sigler made a video presentation to long time HardBall Magazine publisher, Dan Piro (Lifetime Achievement Award) and then presided over a first pitch ceremony before the start of week three pool play at Tempe Diablo Stadium. Grandson Wesley Sigler, did the honors before a very enthusiastic crowd along with players from the 45+ National Division Long Island Mets and the San Antonio Bombers.

For the third time in three weeks at this years World Series Welcome bar-b-que, the Hooters Girls hosted an All Star event complete with a steak sandwich and plenty of discount coupons while the Trade Show exhibitors presented the latest equipment and merchandise for sale to the many players in attendance. To check and see if you have a winning ticket, look on page three for the list of raffle prize winners.
