2009 MSBL / MABL World Series Wraps Up With Today's Championships Over 1000 Games Played In A Little Over 3 Weeks Time In "The Valley of the Sun"

By Tom Prendergast

After three weeks of very competitive adult baseball games the 2009 MSBL / MABL World Series comes to an end with nine championships today at the Tempe Diablo Complex. This years MSBL / MABL World Series tournament included 322 teams, over 5500 players and 34 new championship teams. Several new members were added to the National and WS Hall of Fame along with one new "Lifetime Achievement" award winner.

While this tournament concludes the MSBL / MABL season for this year, the next round of National tournaments get underway starting in January. The Desert Classic (Palm Springs, CA) and the Disney Holiday Classic (Orlando, FL). Both of these tournaments take place the over President's Day weekend. Next up the Kick-off Classic tournaments in Las Vegas on two separate weekends (March 6th - 8th) and (March 13th - 15th).

This evening the tournament officially comes to a close with the second and final awards banquet, held at the Rustler's Rooste. In addition to the new inductees to the HOF and special guest Matt Williams (former San Francisco Giants and Arizona Diamondbacks player), the banquet will also include the raffle, with great prizes.
