Pool Play Wraps Up For 18+ MABL And 25+ Wood Bat Teams

Big Crowd Attends Welcome Bar-B-Que At Tempe Diablo Stadium

By Tom Prendergast

Championship day has arrived for 12 teams today, which is like Christmas in October for baseball players. The 50+ National / American and Central titles will be decided today and so will the 60+ National / Mountain and Central finals. In addition to the trophy and bragging rights for a year, every player on the team receives a WS championship ring. Playoff games get underway this morning for the 18+ MABL and 25+ Wood Bat teams. Teams that keep on winning today will play on Sunday for a championship title. Week 2 teams begin practicing this afternoon on various fields around the area and they will start play on Sunday.

Last night the MSBL / MABL World Series hosted the annual Western Bar-B-Que for all week 1 players and the aroma of freshly grilled hamburgers and hotdogs filled the air in and around the Tempe Diablo Complex. As a bonus, several Trade Show vendors arrived early and set up shop on the stadium concourse, much to the players delight. In a surprise visit, HardBall editor Jeff McGaw made an appearance at the stadium and as usual was a fan favorite. Premier Travel head honcho, Rich Rosenblum also made an appearance last night but his demeanor was not so cheerful as his beloved Yankees lost to the Rangers in 6 games.

Remember - No Drinking or Tobacco products are allowed on the fields during the MSBL / MABL World Series.

MSBL / MABL WS Spotlight onFrank Sansone (18+ So Cal Snappers)

The SoCal Snappers are used to playing for championships. For four years straight (2006-2009), they became the team to beat. Winning their first championship in 2000 (18+ Central), Frank experienced the pure joy of seeing grown men dogpile each other in unbridled joy. They celebrated again in 2008 (18+ National) and are giving their all for a 2010 honor as well. In 2008, Frank was inducted into the WS Hall of Fame. As an accountant at Price Waterhouse just out of college, Frank formed his first MABL team with fellow co-workers. Adult baseball is now his most important activity outside of his family, and he credits his team for helping him get through each grueling work week. Keeping the same team together has allowed this to become his "second family" and after sixteen years of marriage, wife Jill has come to respect how important baseball is to her husband. They have two children, Matt (9) and Abby (7). Frank is now the CFO of a solar energy company and has seen his professional career develop along with his baseball career....expecting success with each new challenge.
