MABL & 25+ MSBL WB Title Games Set For Today!

50+ Wood Bat Central Santa Ynez Sox team defeated the Chicago North Cubs 9-6 in the championship game at Tempe Diablo Stadium Saturday afternoon.

Great Weather For The 50+ / 60+ Championship Games On Saturday

Week 2 Pool Play Games Begin Today With 80 Teams In 35+ / 45+ Divisions
By Tom Prendergast

The first six championship titles were decided on Saturday in the 50+ and 60+ wood bat divisions. The Sacramento Giants shutout the San Antonio Bombers to win the 50+ WB National championship 5-0, at Maryvale Stadium. So Cal Fire defeated Team New Era 6-1 to win the 50+ WB American championship game at Phoenix Municipal Stadium. While the Santa Ynez Sox came from behind to beat the Chicago North Cubs 9 - 6 and capture the 50+ WB Central championship title.

In one of the days most exciting games, the Rhode Island Salty Dogs held on for a 10-8 win over the Terre Haute Volkers in the 60+ WB Central championship game. The San Diego Indians beat the Sacramento Solons 10-8 to win the 60+ WB Mountain championship at Maryvale Stadium. In the 60+ Wood Bat Central division championship game, the Red Deer Snowbirds hammered the St. Paul Saints 23-7 to defend their title.

The winning teams headed directly to Jostens ring table located next to the novelty shop at the stadium to get their rings sized from Gene and Cindy Erickson. In addition to the regular style rings, Jostens is offering an oversized model for an extra $39.

Today the MABL and the 25+ Wood Bat divisions play their championship games to wrap up week one. This morning week two begins as the 35+ and 45+ MSBL teams start their pool play games. On Saturday several MSBL / MABL World Series Trade Show vendors were open for business on the Tempe Diablo Stadium concourse.

MSBL / MABL World Series Spotlight onDon George (Holland Team Manager)

A veteran WS champion with six rings, Don shared a 3-peat with Tracy Nolan and the Lakeland Crew. He played in the Seacoast New Hampshire MSBL under Paul Brooks and the Dallas MSBL with Sam Kayea, earning his first championship with the DFW Yankees. Currently an envoy coach for MLB in Europe, Don formed a talented team of Dutch players (Oosterhout Twins) who are competing in the MABL National this week. A lifelong baseball coach, Don was honored to lead the US Military All Stars last year. He and his wife Diane (married 30 years) have three children: daughter Stacy (28) is married and living in Boston; son Brian (26) is an Air Force pilot about to be deployed to Afghanistan; and son Alan (24) works with Lockheed Martin in Orlando. Alan will be joining his dad for the Father & Son Division next week. A tireless recruiter and organizer for MSBL, Don represents the best qualities in leadership, and we wish him well in this, his first role as a World Series manager.

SORRY BUT NO PETS are allowed inside the Papago, Tempe Diablo or Maryvale Sports Complexes as well as Phoenix Municipal Stadium, Tempe Diablo Stadium or Maryvale Stadium per a City of Phoenix Ordinance.
