MSBL / MABL World Series Spotlight on
Jim Durham (Columbus Dodgers)

Columbus MSBL founder Rod Davis and John Littlejohn in 1988 invited Jim Durham to play in their inaugural year.

Now in his sixteenth year managing a World Series team, Jim has attended every one of the 22 years in Arizona.

Recognizing that not many share that achievement are his daughter Maggie (16) and his wife of 18 years, Nona. As vice president of commercial operations for Fifth Third Bank, Jim always knows how he will spend his annual vacations. His Columbus Dodgers are a five time veteran of the play-offs and eager to win their first championship. A serious student of the game of baseball, Jim has a sharp wit and knows how to keep his favorite hobby in perspective. When asked of his most memorable moment in his long tenure at the World Series, Jim cites the experience of leaving the batter's box with a pulled muscle in his gluteus maximus following a check swing. Now entering the game, 1 courtesy runner and one massage therapist.

Longtime Photographers At The MSBL / MABL World Series Noticeably Absent

By Tom Prendergast

One of the most often asked questions this year is where are the photographers? Denevi and Jones, (who for 18 years took pictures) dissolved their partnership earlier this year and in the process left a huge hole in the WS and HardBall family. The bonds of friendship they had formed with countless players and teams over the years will be greatly missed. Chris Denevi and CJ Jones were inducted into the World Series Hall of Fame in 2004.

65+ / 25+ Wood Bat Divisions Begin Their Pool Play Games Today

Tempe Diablo Stadium Is A Hub Of Activity For Players And Spectators

By Tom Prendergast

Week two of the 2010 MSBL / MABL World Series officially got underway yesterday as all of the teams began their pool play games. This week is by far the largest and busiest of the tournament. On Wednesday the Father and Son teams start arriving in what is truly a very special and unique tournament in a tournament. While the action on the field was pretty intense, (there was an unconfirmed report that a 65+ year old player was ejected). That's both good and bad I guess, it's obvious that the competitive juices keep flowing at any age. The weather was ideal, perfect temperatures and a cloud cover kept playing conditions just about right. Off the field on the Tempe Diablo Stadium concourse, several vendors were busy with traffic all day. Angela Sellers (Sol Touch Massage) had a steady stream of sore and achey customers on her table from 9:00a until 5:00p, while the Victory Athletic booth was packed and just about all of the bat vendors were doing a brisk business.

The MSBL / MABL World Series merchandise shop (located behind first base on the main level in the stadium) was also experiencing a lot of traffic. Shop manager, Vic Puglisi has advised that any players interested in getting a 2010 MSBL / MABL WS commemorative patch should do so quickly, since they only have a limited number of 300 in stock. Gene and Cindy Erickson (with Josten's ring company) will be back at the stadium this weekend.

Remember - No Drinking or Tobacco products are allowed on the fields during the MSBL / MABL World Series.
