MSBL / MABL World Series Spotlight on Greg Schienda (Connecticut Navigators)

Greg Schienda's Connecticut Navigators (45+ wood central) are a great bunch of guys who come out to have a good time, whether they win a championship or not. They are loose, joke around a lot, and enjoy time on and off the field. Greg has been involved with MSBL since 1990, and the Otis Elevator software engineer has been managing 16 years. His girlfriend, Shirley joins him every year. Children Jackie (30), Michelle (27), and Carly (16) love to see their dad having the time of his life with Mens Senior Baseball. Greg enjoys coming to Phoenix with his best friends, John Bennett and Dave Sacco, who help him with managing responsibilities. A part of the 24 hour marathon the year it rained two consecutive days, Greg recalls a scheduled make up game at 3:00am. Impressed by the passion to get all games played, he credits possible to complete their six games and still have the championship round played. With players and managers like Greg, it is a joy to do whatever is necessary to fulfill expectations and have everyone go home a winner.

Great Parity In Most Divisions As Pool Play Games Reach Half Way 2010 MSBL / MABL Father & Son Tournament Begins Tomorrow With 30 Teams By Tom Prendergast

Out of 80+ teams participating in the tournament this week, approximately two thirds of those teams still have a legitimate shot of advancing to the playoff round. In some of the bigger divisions (8 or more teams), the runs allowed category is very important. Since some teams won't have played each other in the pool play round, fewest runs allowed will almost always carry a team into the playoffs. Teams that began their pool play games on Sunday start playoffs tomorrow, while the teams that started on Monday begin their playoffs on Friday. The Western Bar-B-Que is Thursday night at Tempe Diablo Stadium at 5:00pm.

Thursday the annual Father & Son tournament gets underway, a marvelous concept that allows dads and sons to play together in a competitive environment. Founder Val Lewis will be back again to oversee the tournament and make sure everybody's up to speed on the very special and unique rules that this type of tournament requires. Saturday night the tournament hosts the WS Banquet, held at the Rustler's Rooste. This years guest speaker is former MLB player and current Oakland Athletics pitching coach, Curt Young. The evening gets under way with cocktails at 6:30p and dinner is served at 7:15p.

Remember - No Drinking or Tobacco products are allowed at the facilities during the MSBL / MABL World Series.
