Who would guess that the general manager of a copper mine in Chile, similar to the one recently in the news with the 33 trapped workers, would be celebrating a World Series championship in 2006? Jerry returned from Chile in 2000 and responded to a newspaper ad from Skip Bradley. In addition to joining the San Antonio MSBL, he purchased a local Goodyear Tire dealership and two years later parlayed a friendship in the baseball league into a shared purchase of an electrical contracting firm from Larry Cheatwood, and they continue to play ball and operate their

- 10 company together. Jerry's wife Ruby is as pas-
- sionate and talented with her tennis as he is with
- 2 baseball, and she supports his playing with up to
- three teams at a time. Their son Drew (33) also 3
- played in the SA MSBL and shared time on the
- Bombers in 1995 before moving away from San 22 11 Antonio. In addition to Drew, Jerry has three
- other children, Lamont (35), Talia (31), and
- 8 Christy (29). His San Antonio Bombers have won
- three championships, their latest with Jerry as
- manager (45+ National in 1996). With eight grandchildren, Jerry and Ruby may be supplying MSBL with new recruits for decades to come. 4
