MSBL / MABL World Series Spotlight on
Bob Parness (Scottsdales Finest)

Quality time with quality friends on a ball field. Is there any better way to enjoy the fall in Arizona? Ask Bob Parness about his Scottsdales Finest MSBL team and he immediately will tell you that winning championships is great

(they already have two), but having a great mixture of guys who enjoy being together means even more. Beginning as the Indianapolis Giants years ago, and wearing the SF uniforms recognized as the big league club, Bob moved to the valley in 1998. Playing on his team were several of the coaching staff from the Arizona Diamondbacks, so continuing to be called the Giants just didn't seem the right thing to do. SF became the logo for Scottsdales Finest, and the team continued playing a high level and enjoyable brand of ball. Expectations for how players conduct themselves was paramount, and with an increasing number of former major league players joining the team, no one had to tell them to "act like you've been there before" when they won ballgames. First Round Of MSBL WS Championship Games Set For Today

Playoffs And Semi-Finals For 18+ MABL and 25+ Wood Bat Divisions

By Tom Prendergast

Another great day on two fronts yesterday at the MSBL / MABL World Series. First ,the weather was outstanding and second, the games were very competitive. The championship games start today with 6 games at four different stadiums. In addition to those games, the 18+ MABL and the 25+ Wood Bat division playoffs get underway. Their championship games will be played on Sunday.

If you listen closely at Tempe Diablo Stadium, you are likely to hear a familiar voice coming over the stadium loud speakers. Our own Vic Puglisi has come up with a new concept for everyone's enjoyment that he likes to refer to as, MSBL Radio. That's right, the master blaster DJ in Vic has been recording some classic tunes and now playing them back during stadium games. Next thing you know Vic will have his own satellite radio channel.

One of the best kept secrets in the area is Vinci Torin's Italian Restaurant. You can enjoy daily-made pastas, sauces made from scratch, pizzas and Italian wines by the glass. Look for fettuccine with chicken and asparagus, lasagna, agnolotti and panna cotta with marinated berries and a raspberry mango sauce. All for between $20 and $40. Go south on Dobson Road to Elliot Road in Tempe. It's really fantastic. And don't forget to mention you are with the MSBL / MABL World Series at the front door. Don't forget to check out some of the new logo clothing that's on sale at the stadium, behind the first base dugout.

Remember - No Drinking or Tobacco products are allowed on the fields during the MSBL / MABL World Series.

school in Northern California, Bob shared uniforms with Mark Davis and Randy Johnson, and had it not been for an injury requiring surgery, he might have gone on to play a higher level of ball with his childhood friends. He did spend some time in the low minor leagues, and is thankful for the opportunities baseball has given him. Along with his wife, Jerri, Bob enjoys his three children, Shelby (31), Ryan (29), Carrie (26), and their two grandchildren Tyler (6) and Olivia (3). Friends and family recently enjoyed watching Ryan perform on Simon Cowell's X-Factor show, and he did quite well. A regional sales manager for a medical supply company for 21 years, Bob does his share of traveling. His territory begins at the Mississippi River and covers all of the western US., a 26 state region. Asked about his 22nd World Series Tournament this year (20th as a manager), Bob says he enjoys the upgrading of fields used, especially the new complexes added this year. He also praised the job the umpires are doing, citing a significant improvement in that area. Quick to recognize the high quality leadership from Steve and Brian Sigler, Bob says he really appreciates the way this tournament is run. With an objective of focusing on quality time with quality people, it seems he has found the right place to play ball.

SORRY BUT NO PETS are allowed inside the Papago, Tempe Diablo or Maryvale Sports Complexes as well as Phoenix Municipal Stadium, Tempe Diablo Stadium or Maryvale Stadium per a City of Phoenix Ordinance.
