MSBL / MABL World Series Spotlight on

Allen Green (Greenwood Ridge Dragons)

Driving along the Mendocino Ridge overlooking Anderson Valley in California you might be struck by the beauty of grapes adorning the hillsides. Beautiful wineries are found in this region, and the fresh air, bright sunshine, and moderate climate produce some of the finest wines in America. Check out the website for Greenwood Ridge Vineyards (www.greenwoodridge.com) and you will find a link to "baseball." Seems this MSBL manager incorporates his hobby with his vocation, and you can follow the Greenwood Ridge Dragons from their 2001 beginnings through a series of World Series championships and (continued on page 2)

Title Games At Tempe, Hohokam, Salt River & Phoenix Municipal

Final Two 50+ Central Semi-Final Games This Morning Played at Tempe #1 & # 2
By Tom Prendergast

Yesterday's dust storm held off just long enough to get all of the MSBL semifinal games completed. Several of these playoff games went extra innings in one of the most competitive days in recent memory at the MSBL / MABL World Series. A record number 12 games were decided by one run, while 7 games needed extra innings. Some of the days best games were played at the new Salt River and Camelback Ranch complexes. Both of these facilities have been getting great reviews, especially the incredibly green grass "carpet like surface" at the stadiums.

Today the tournament concludes with 9 more championships played this morning and early afternoon. And like any MSBL championship day, Tempe Diablo Stadium will be a busy place because in addition to two championship games, all of the players on the winning teams will be stopping by to get their rings sized at the Jostens booth, located next to the WS Souvenir store. On Saturday night, the annual MSBL WS awards banquet will be held at the Rustler's Rooste, located at I-10 and Baseline (behind the Arizona Grand Hotel).

great team play. Allen Green plays centerfield and manages this team, and along with longtime friends and 3 former major league players has found a formula for success. They won the 50+ championship in 2007, then had a perfect 8 game win streak to defend their title in 2008. In 2009 they won the Fall Classic 52+ championship, and returned to Arizona to finish 2nd in the 55+ division. A former graphic designer, Allen began growing grapes in 1973 and his passion has produced great fruits for his wines. Since 1983 he has hosted the California Wine Tasting Championships, so competing in MSBL baseball championships seems like a natural. His wife, Mariana is an active prosecuting attorney, so accompanying Allen on baseball trips has to be carefully scheduled. She has enjoyed his baseball trips to Italy and Cuba as he plays on Dennis McCrosky's international travel team. If you place an order on the website for Allen's wines, your gift package selections include "Triple Play," "Grand Slam," and "All Star." The beauty of the Arizona desert and major league stadiums has a special place in Allen Green's lifestyle. Sit down and share a glass of Riesling, or even better yet a "Home Run Red" with him. It was created in honor of the Dragons' 2008 back-to-back 50+ MSBL championship. Allen can entertain you with his memories from the diamond as well as his experience on the Ridge.
