MSBL / MABL World Series Spotlight on

Mike Hendrie (continued from page 1)

seriously. Other players there shared with him about the MSBL league available in his hometown and in 1999 he became a player again. By 2000 he was going to the World Series, and he's been attending ever since. Two years ago he started up the 65's after winning the 58+ American Division. Last year his team lost in the championship game and they are giving teams a battle again this year. A 40 year Real Estate/Builder/Developer in Michigan, Mike is still working through this tough economic times, especially in the hard-hit automotive community. Both his sons live ½ block from each other in Chicago so visiting family can be accomplished in one trip. Mike, Jr. (35) and Andrew (30) attended the University of Michigan after earning MBA's, now work in the business world. Janice is a retired 39 year high school Spanish teacher. Most of the Detroit 65's live in the Detroit/Flint area, but Mike enjoys a couple of his teammates from Puerto Rico. In his 8th trip to the World Series, Mike has been to the championship table to collect 4 rings, in 58+ Central, 60+ National, and 65+ American. He also has attended the Fall Classic, and now assists Steve Sigler and Gary D'Ambrisi in running the new MSBL Grapefruit Classic held the last weekend of March in Winter Haven, Florida. Arizona's heat and lack of humidity is a major (continued on page 3)
