25+ WB / 65+ WB And Father / Son Divisions Complete Pool Play Today
MSBL WS Daily News TV Broadcasts The First "Live" Game Via The Internet
By Tom Prendergast

Yesterday's live internet broadcast of the Father & Son Central division game between the San Diego Blue Jays and the Tri Valley Giants over came a couple technical problems to get on the air. After the audio problem was identified (somebody forgot to turn up the master switch volume) the production went fairly smooth. The game was compelling to watch and the lead kept switching back and forth right up until the end. The voice of the MSBL / MABL Joel Becker handled the play by play duties, while co-host Amber Baletto interviewed national president, Steve Sigler, who stopped by for an in game visit. The Tempe Diablo Complex was the place to be on Thursday with the official opening of the Trade Show and the Welcome Bar BQ. The place was packed and by 7:00p, the parking lot in front of the stadium was jam packed. Pool play games end today for week two teams, while the 55+ divisions host their championship games.

By Tom Prendergast

Editors Note: I've taken literally thousands of pictures over the past 15 years as the photographer for the MSBL / MABL World Series Daily News. But today's cover picture is one of the most unique and compelling photos I have ever taken on a ball field. The play unfolded with the Colorado batter, Mike Duran hitting the ball back to the pitcher, who quickly tossed the ball to the New Mexico Bombers first baseman, Steve Waghorn. Instead of just stepping on the bag, he ran towards the batter / runner with the ball in his glove. Mike Duran saw him coming, stopped, turned around and began sprinting back towards home plate. So yes, the runner is actually heading the wrong way!
