St. Thomas Tropical Waves Captures 25+ Championship

The St. Thomas Tropical Waves defeated the St. Louis Spikes 16-5 to win the 25+ Central Division Championship trophy on Saturday morning at Tempe Diablo Stadium.

25+ Metal Bat Central, Tempe Diablo Stadium

St. Thomas Waves 16, St. Louis Spikes 5

The St. Thomas Waves rolled over the St. Louis Spikes behind a complete game win by pitcher Brandon Thielk and a 4-5 day at the plate from Sean Dodson. The game was broken open in the 5th with seven straight hits leading to a seven run inning. For a complete more detailed write up on each championship series go to: www.msblnational.com.

The MSBL All Stars will play the MLB Legends in an 1880's style baseball game tonight at Tempe Diablo Stadium. Hall of Famer, Reggie Jackson will coach the Legends players who will be playing in the uniforms of the period, along with the rules and customs from that era. At the MSBL World Series Awards banquet last night former MLB (and current So Cal Dodgers) player, Brian Kingman was the featured guest. The Legends administrative staff put on a silent auction to help raise money for charity and the top earning item was a Derek Jeter (autographed jersey) that went for $950. The game is tonight at 7:00pm at Tempe Diablo.
