MSBL / MABL World Series Spotlight On Bill Harmon (60+ Kansas City Cubs)

Living a full life doesn't just happen. You have to go out every day and make things happen. Bill Harmon has so many great memories because he stepped up to the plate, figuratively and literally. You don't celebrate 46 years of marriage (like Bill and Diane have) without showing up every day. Attending every world series since 1988 except for 2011 (illness) is a remarkable record of consistency and dedication. Winning championships in four of those years is a byproduct of consistency. Honors come along for those who perseveres, as well. Bill has been named Man of the Year and honored with Men of (continued on page 2)

MSBL / MABL World Series Spotlight On

the Decade in his home of Kansas City. Baseball has recognized him with Hall of Fame honors in K.C. and MSBL National. Playing ball since 1953 and continuing into his late adulthood just seemed natural. This three sport college athlete never tired of the challenges and rewards his love of competition provided. Being able to be an amateur athlete and share the diamond with many former professionals in the sport has added even more enjoyment to his life. Bill says it's been a wonderful trip....so far. He still looks forward to many more additions to a full and successful life.
