MSBL / MABL World Series Spotlight On Ken Chavez (Sacramento Tribe)
Solid. Dependable. One of the key guys. Ken Chavez has been earning the admiration of teammates, league officials, and national leaders in MSBL since 1989. In his Sacramento, California league, he has been accumulating the kind of history that earns guys lifetime recognition. World Series participation every year since 1990. Five times in the Father & Son Division. Las Vegas Classic every year since 2004, Las Vegas Open the last two years. Add in a trip to Palm Springs for good measure. Championships won in Arizona in 04, 05, 07, 08, 09, and '10. Father & Son Championship 09. Won in Las Vegas 8 times. Ken's baseball hero was Willie Mays. Wasn't it Mays who reportedly finished a day game in the Polo Grounds and then went to his neighborhood to play street ball with the kids? Seems like the same kind of passion and dedication to the sport to me. Ken was elected to both the Sacramento Hall of Fame and the MSBL World Series Hall of Fame. With wife of 31 years, Christine, he looks forward to having grandsons Joshua and Eli join his son Robby (28) on the field one day in another Father & Son game. Christine and daughter Kelly (30) would certainly want to be a part of that. Ken's favorite feeling among all his baseball experiences is "getting that last out in a championship game." Bet he'll have some more of those to enjoy.

World Series Trade Show Vendors Give New Format Rave Reviews

Player's Club / WS Daily News TV Show / Legends Game, Bring In Big Crowds!

By Tom Prendergast

MVP Athletics entrepreneur Vic Puglisi's new format for the MSBL / MABL Trade Show vendors certainly helped bring the players back to Tempe Diablo Stadium. The man with the plan, Puglisi wanted to re-energize the players and entice them back to the WS Trade Show with several new additions. At the top of the list stands the WS Daily News TV Show. The anchor desk sits in the middle of the Player's Club, where co-anchors Joel Becker and Amber Baletto report on the days scores and highlights. In addition to that, three big screen TV's are always on featuring plenty of sports shows along with a batting cage (free to any teams that would like to reserve it). This has made the Player's Club a fan favorite for pictures. And don't forget, all MSBL WS players have the ability to upload their own World Series photos to the website by using the following URL, and then just following the directions.
