Spectacular Weather On Tap For Week 3 MSBL WS Teams!

18+ Wood Division champions, the Long Island Aviators capped off a great week of play with an impressive, come from behind 7 - 4 win over the Rocky Mountain Oysters on Sunday.

Hardball On Line Championship Game Recaps

18+ Wood Championship - Long Island Aviators 7 vs Rocky Mountain Oysters 4

Long Island scored three runs to take the lead in the seventh inning, and then held on to win the 18 Wood Bat National division crown. Kevin Willy earned the win in relief of John Pariello, and Tim Huffer tossed three hitless frames for the save. Billy Graiser and Paulie Feriggi each had a pair of RBI. Eric Byrne was selected the tournament MVP. Sloan Soulia and Ryan Hendricks each had two hits for the Oysters in a losing cause. – Rodney Johnson

Father & Son Federal Championship - Downey Waves 12 vs Milwaukee Orioles 5

The Downey Waves scored in Waves -- five runs in the first inning, four in the eighth and four in the ninth – and despite being penalized two runs for batting out of order managed to claim Father-Son Federal division gold. After yielding three runs in the first inning, including a two run triple to Derrick Stephenson, Junior Esparza settled down to throw five strong innings. Mario Rodarte Jr. finished up for the Waves allowing just a run over four innings. Esparza, the team's tournament MVP, had three hits on the day. – Jeff McGaw, MSBLNational.com.

Father & Son American Championship - San Jose 11 vs Sacramento Muddogs 1

MVP Matt Zuvella had three hits, including a two-run single in the five-run fifth inning, and while starter Chris Chambers and reliever Mike Denevi, a dad, shut out the powerful Mud Dog lineup for the final eight frames. Denevi singled and scored what proved to be the winning run in the first inning on a single by Todd Leffler. Don Chambers capped the scoring with a two run single in the ninth. – by Jeff McGaw, MSBLNational.com

65+ American Championship - LeHigh Valley Moondogs 9 vs Philadelphia Phillies 4

A banged up Phillies team was no match for the Moondogs who took charge with five runs over the last four innings to capture the 65+ American title. Portland, Ore. native Sherwin Thingvold worked into the eighth inning to pick up the win. Dennis Ritter had three hits including two doubles to lead the Lehigh Valley attack. The Moodogs stroked four straight extra base hits in the eighth to put the game on ice. Denny Hock was selected as the tournament MVP.

Right fielder Ralph Leef saved the day for the Oaks by throwing out what would have been the game-tying run in the ninth inning as the Sonoma Oaks held on for a 6-5 win over the Ohio Classics. George Hughes' Classics had already scored twice in the final frame, but Leef's throw killed the rally. Ron "Ringo" Starkey led the Oaks by scoring two runs and driving in another. – Jason Johnson, MSBLNational.com

Father & Son Central Championship - Hillsboro Hops 14 vs Minnesota Crosstown 6

There was no lack of offense in the Father-Son Central Division championship as the Hillsboro Hops jumped out to a 6-0 lead in the first inning and fought off several rallies from Dave Johnson's gritty Crosstown Traffic Baseball team to hang on and win 14-6. Tournament MVP Troy McNaughton led the charge for the Hops finishing a home run shy of the cycle and scoring three runs. – Jason Johnson, HardBall

65+ National Championship - San Antonio Rangers 15 vs Sacramento Solons 2

Ranger starter Skip Bradley scattered nine hits and just two runs over eight innings, and manager Billy Jacobs was on base four times as San Antonio smothered the Sacramento Solons 15-2. Tournament MVP Billy Cocchia walked three times and scored each time. – Steve LaMontia, MSBLNational.com

18+ Aluminum Championship - So Cal Reds 13 vs Montebello Dodgers 6

Jesse Smith, Abel Medina, and Sabino Titones fueled the offense, while Ryan Schwin, Matt Paris and Larry Kowalski kept the opposing hitters at bay as the So Cal Reds beat the Montebello Dodgers 13-6 for the 18 National Metal Bat division crown. Smith was 2-for-4 with a monstrous homer over the berm in left field at Hohokam. Medina was 3-for-4 with a double and three RBI. Titones was 3-for-4 with three runs scored and two RBI. Smith and Abel were named their team's co-MVP's. – Steve LaMontia, MSBLNational.com
