MABL - 25+ Divisions Begin As 50+ Playoff Games Start

25+ Central division Royals de Venezuela pitcher, Pitter Guerra was sharp in his teams opening game win over the San Luis Obispo Nuts, 11-9 yesterday at Tempe Diablo stadium.

5 Team Tie In 50+ Cactus Division For First Place, All With 4-2 Records Overall League Parity Achieved As 8 of 16 Teams Have The Same Number of Wins!

By Tom Prendergast

The National Football League would be jealous! As they struggle to maintain a consistent league wide parity, the MSBL Cactus Division has achieved it this week. A five way tie in the Cactus Division 2 division resulted in 5 of the 8 teams having identical records. To my knowledge this is the first time that's happened. The Corona Diamondbacks ended up as the division winner because they allowed the fewest runs scored against them, 34. Arizona and Kansas City each gave up 38 runs while the San Antonio Lonestars (42) and the Des Moines Bruins (44) qualified for the playoffs as wildcards. Over in Cactus Division1, the East Haven Jor Els gave up 45 runs and missed qualifying for the playoffs by the slimmest of margins, 1 run. The Diamond Dream Mustangs had the best record in the Cactus Division going 5-1 and the South Bay Zephyrs finished second overall with a 4-1-1 record.

Clarification On The Participation Rule For Central and Cactus Division Teams - By Tom Prendergast

MSBL WS Manager Packet and MSBL / MABL WS Scorebook

5. Central and Cactus Divisions - Minimum of one plate appearance per game for at least 14 dressed players. This rule only applies for 9 inning, scheduled games. If the time runs out before the game goes 9 innings, teams must still comply with this rule. To qualify as an at bat a player must be in the batter's box if and when the game ends

(3rd out is recorded) to be in compliance with this rule.

Exception to this rule: If a team has 13 or fewer uniformed players, the opposing team will have the option to bat the same number of uniformed players despite the number of uniformed players they have.

In the event that the game ends with unbatted players, the violating team, under proper protest, will forfeit any win.
