MSBL / MABL World Series Spotlight on

George Hughes (70+ Classics)

The Ohio Classics won the 70+ championship game to capture the title, a real-life Cinderella story. During their playoff game they pulled off an incredibly rare, walk off triple play, which propelled them into the semi-finals. None of this would have been possible without their manager and on field leader, George Hughes. A twenty year veteran of adult baseball, he joined forces with Joe Sider to form the Ohio MSBL in 2009. Prior to that he had been the league president of the NE Ohio 50+ Old Timers League. As good as that organization was it had some drawbacks for George. It featured no bunting, no stealing, and four outfielders. His teams were very successful in league and tournament play, but had a great desire to play "real baseball" again. So when he joined the MSBL, it was a match made in heaven. Or for George, a match made on the baseball field. He was a top flight salesman for a public relations firm for 23 years, but in retirement George has been very active. When he's not playing baseball, he stays busy with his three daughters, eight grandchildren, and four great great grandchildren. Congratulations George on a great win!
