65+ American Playoff Changes

By Tom Prendergast

Up until yesterday, four of the 10 teams in the 65+ American division were unbeaten and had each given up less than 20 runs. Clearly these team were head and shoulders above the others. So in an attempt to even the playing field, the WS office has added a Mountain Division for playoff purposes. The top four teams will remain in the American division and the six other teams will go to the Mountain division. (continued on page 3)

55+ WB Mountain Championship Game At The New Riverview Stadium

65+ Pool Play Wraps Up While 74+ San Diego Padres Take A 2 Games to 1 Lead
By Tom Prendergast

This morning, the 55+ Mountain Championship game will be played at the newest MLB spring training facility, Riverview Park (home to the Chicago Cubs). Its is without question one of the best facilities in the area and includes a 15,000 seat main stadium and four auxiliary fields. Located at the northwest corner of Dobson Rd and Rio Salado Parkway, this $99 million complex is state of the art.

While the complex is owned by the City of Mesa, it is operated by the Chicago Cubs. In addition to the baseball facilities, which are stunning, the complex also includes two playground areas, shaded picnic areas complete with restrooms and a walking trail. It has an urban fishing lake, a 50ft tall Genesis climbing tower and a separate 60ft long caterpillar mesh rope climbing structure that includes a display fountain. The MSBL / MABL is very appreciative to both the Chicago Cubs and the City of Mesa.

The Power Up Wedge Hitting & Pitching Device
By Tom Prendergast

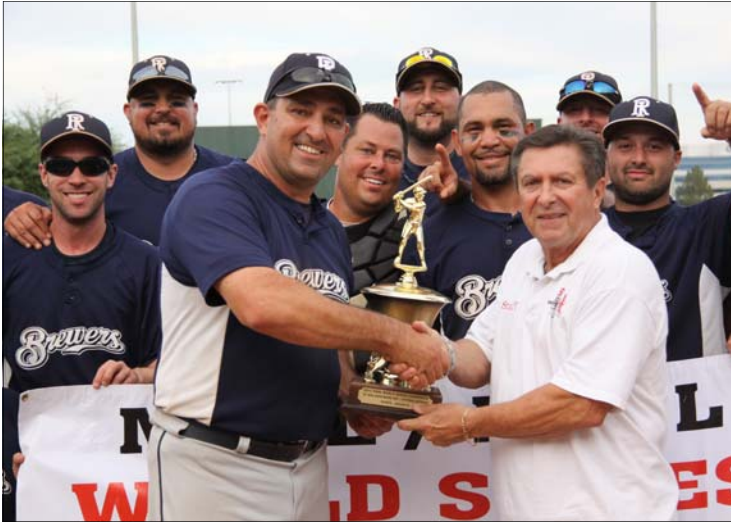

It is used for hitting and pitching to get the players back side engaged. It was invented and developed by a NY Mets Scouting Supervisor by the name of Steve Gossett. He has been a baseball scout for the St. Louis Cardinals from 2001-2008, KC Royals 2009 and NY Mets 2010-present.

The power up wedge is a personal, portable training device that attaches to the players rear and/or front foot to aide the players lower 1/2 in the set up and initiation of the swing and delivery.

The Wedge Provides hitters and pitchers of all ages and skill level with balance, stability, new found power, control and velocity. While enabling the player instantaneous feel and quickly developed muscle memory.
