MSBL / MABL World Series Spotlight on

Allen Green (Greenwood Ridge Dragons)

Driving along the Mendocino Ridge overlooking Anderson Valley in California you might be struck by the beauty of grapes adorning the hillsides. Beautiful wineries are found in this region, and the fresh air, bright sunshine, and moderate climate produce some of the finest wines in America. Check out the website for Greenwood Ridge Vineyards (www.greenwoodridge.com) and you will find a link to "baseball." Seems this MSBL manager incorporates his hobby with his vocation, and you can follow the Greenwood Ridge Dragons from their 2001 beginnings through a series of World Series championships and great team play. Allen Green plays centerfield and manages this team, and along with longtime friends and 3 former major league players has found a formula for success. They won the 50+ championship in 2007, then had a perfect 8 game win streak to defend their title in 2008. In 2009 they won the Fall Classic 52+ championship, and returned to Arizona to finish 2nd in the 55+ division. A former graphic designer, Allen began growing grapes in 1973 and his passion has produced great fruits for his wines. Since 1983 he has hosted the California Wine Tasting Championships, so competing in MSBL baseball championships seems like a natural. If you place an order on the website for Allen's wines, your gift package selections include "Triple Play," "Grand Slam," and "All Star." The beauty of the Arizona desert and major league stadiums has a special place in Allen Green's lifestyle. Sit down and share a glass of Riesling, or even better yet a "Home Run Red" with him. It was created in honor of the Dragons' 2008 back-to-back 50+ MSBL championship. Allen can entertain you with his memories from the diamond as well as his experience on the Ridge.

Week 3 Games Begin With Spectacular AZ Weather!

35+ Aluminum division Seattle Brewers batter / runner, Todd Wilday seems to defy gravity in an effort to beat the ball to the bag. No instant replay was necessary, as Wilday was safe.

MSBL / MABL National Exploring Social Media With Our Own Facebook Page

HardBall Online Expanding To All Forms Of Futuristic Communications

By Tom Prendergast

During the Father & Son tournament I was surprised to see just how many players (mostly sons) were viewing the MSBL National website by using their phones. These guys knew how many runs their opponents had scored and more importantly, exactly how many they had allowed. With this new breed of tech savvy players in mind, the National Office in New York has instructed, Steve LaMontia (Director of Communications) to ramp up the league's presence on the social media sites. He has done a terrific job keeping the national website current with interesting articles and timely updates about everything the league does on both the national and local level. Now the next logical step is our Facebook page. I must admit I don't know a whole lot about this medium. But I do know that I would have never felt comfortable posting my "status" and as far as de-friending somebody I would just stop calling them. But apparently there's a whole lot more to this internet thing than I can comprehend. So now our players will have the opportunity to get on our Facebook page (<http://www.facebook.com/adultbaseball>) and like us a whole lot more than they do now!
