MSBL / MABL World Series Spotlight on

Wes Thomas (Facebook Page Monitor)

60 year old Wes
Thomas from Racine, Wisconsin has been assigned the duties of maintaining the rapidly growing MSBL
Facebook page and additional social media duties within the organization. Wes is the Director of Design with Kolcraft Enterprises located in Chicago and will be assisting the organization on a part time basis. Wes has been a member of the MSBL family since 1995 and an annual Arizona WS participant since 1996, as well as trips to Florida and Las Vegas. Wes is married to Lori and he and Lori love and spoil their three standard poodles Jackson, Rocket and Dixie.

"Playing ball is great, but being able to connect with players from all over the country and talk about baseball, and hear their experiences and desires is amazing," said Wes. "I am grateful for this opportunity to continue my baseball passion after I stop playing."

MSBL and Wes have realized that there is an increasing need to stay abreast of the growing social media needs and demands and Wes' experience in these fields is welcome and will make our organization stronger in the area of continual communication. Steve LaMontia and Wes will be teaming up to ensure that there is always a current platform for your MSBL and MABL communication.

You can go to the MSBL Facebook page by going to www.facebook.com/adultbaseball.

Number Of Teams That Qualify For Playoffs

35+ Central - top 5 teams

45+ American - top 6 teams (1st & 2nd byes)

45+ Central - 8 teams (top 3 & 2 wildcards)

Playoffs Loom Large As Pool Play Games End Today!

45+ Cactus Connecticut Navigator's pitcher, Rob Kandro came on in relief yesterday in his teams game with the St Thomas Hurricanes at Tempe Diablo Stadium. St Thomas won 14-2.

MSBL World Series Tie Breakers - Head To Head And Then Fewest Runs Allowed Wildcard Teams Can Come From Any Division - Reseeding Takes Place After Each Round By Tom Prendergast

The playoffs are upon us. Pool play games end today and so for many teams the playoffs have already started. Bubble teams not only have to win but try and keep their opponents runs to a minimum. That's easier said than done. Not only does a manager have to keep an eye on the starting pitching, but every player is required to get a couple plate appearances and a pitcher needs to record three outs (during pool play games) in order to be eligible to participate in the playoffs. In the participation divisions a minimum of 14 players need a plate appearance if the game goes 9 innings. So there's a lot to contend with. Sometimes the difference between qualifying for the playoffs and not advancing is one run. Do you save an arm and take a chance on winning but giving up two many runs? Tough call but sometimes a manager has to roll the dice. The standings on the MSBL / MABL National website (powered by Pointstreak) sometimes don't show the correct order of teams and that can cause anxieties and problems (mostly for me), especially when (continued on page 3)
