Former MLB Players Roger Clemens and Oil Can Boyd Face Off Tonight at Tempe Diablo Stadium - 5:30pm

By Max Utsler

Two former teammates will take the mound when the Houston Old-Stars take on the Boston Wolf Pack at 5:30 p.m., Oct. 20 at Tempe Diablo Stadium in a 50+ WB American matchup. But, Roger Clemens and Dennis "Oil Can" Boyd aren't just any old teammates. In 1986 the Boston Red Sox #1 and #2 pitchers combined for a 40-14 record and led their team to the American League East championship. They dispatched the Angels in seven games in the ALCS before losing to the Mets in the "Bill Buckner World Series." In that season Clemens won the AL Cy Young Award, the AL MVP Award, led the league in ERA (2.48) and wins (24). The Old Stars are 3-1 while the Wolfpack are 2-0, and are first and second in the standings.

Record Rainfall On Monday Washes Out MSBL WS Morning Games

Tempe Diablo Complex Fields Don't Miss A Beat With Games All Day Long

By Tom Prendergast

After a ton of rain on Sunday night, the MSBL WS office staff was notified that all morning games at the Maryvale and Riverview fields would not play on Monday morning. Several of these games were quickly moved to the Tempe Diablo Complex fields and amazingly every team managed to play at least one game yesterday. In addition to that all of the suspended and rained out games were re-scheduled for later in the week. All of these games have been updated on the website. Phone problems continued on day two at the MSBL WS office and so the backup line (602) 438-6028 was still being used all day. The 35+ divisions began play today while the 18+ divisions begin tomorrow. Several trade show vendors have arrived this week and can be found in and around the Tempe Diablo Complex. And MSBL / MABL WS clothier, Vic Puglisi is back again this year with an impressive selection of logo merchandise.
