25+ Pool Play Games End Today, Weather Cooperates Returns to Normal

Number of Playoff Teams That Will Advance - 8 American / 5 Mountain / 8 Central

By Tom Prenderast

Cooler than normal temperatures greeted players on Thursday, but thankfully no rain. After a soggy and wet Wednesday, all of the games got played yesterday without incident. As the pool play games wrap up today in 25+ divisions, playoffs in 45+ / 60+ begin this morning. If there was an upside to the unusual weather, the MVP Novelty Shop has sold more sweatshirts this year than the last three years combined. Up to date scores are available on the national website and as soon as they are reported to the WS office they get posted online (in real time) so teams that are still playing can be alerted to other scores from their division. In the event of a wrong score or a discrepancy on runs allowed for your team, please contact the MSBL World Series office immediately, so the scores and totals can be corrected.
