50+ Playoffs Loom Large As The Final Day Of Pool Play Arrives

Runs Allowed Will Play A Huge Factor In Determining Wildcard Teams

By Tom Prendergast

Elimination day is at hand for several hoping to secure a playoff spot so they can play tomorrow. If your record is 5-0 or 4-1 your chances are looking pretty good. On the other hand if your record is the same as a couple of other teams, 2-2 or 2-3 then your probably going to end up in a tie-breaker situation. Head to head is the first tie breaker, but if you didn't play all of the teams that are tied with the same record, then runs allowed becomes the deciding factor. This is also the case for wildcards when you add in teams from other divisions. So any way you look at this, allowing the fewest runs possible is always the way to go. That's why it's extremely important to verify your teams record and runs allowed that are listed on the website. If they are wrong don't wait for the day of the playoffs, call the WS office and get it corrected ASAP. Once the playoff teams are selected, every team is ranked. The 1 seed plays the 8 seed and so on. Teams are re-seeded after each round so the teams with the best records will always be the high seeds.

Parking Problems Persist At Papago & Maryvale Fields Despite Off Limits Signs and Fences

The WS office has received notification from the staff at Papago and Maryvale that the last few days several cars have been spotted parked in no parking areas at both of the complexes. Because of that they have requested that we remind all of our participants and spectators to be aware of areas with "no parking" signs and to not park any vehicles in or near these areas. Starting today any cars or trucks parked in these spots will be removed from the complex.
