Team Victory Outlasts Boston To Win The 50+ Title Game!

Team Victory poses for a photo after defeating the Boston Wolfpack 5-3 in the 50+ National Championship game at Tempe Diablo Stadium on Friday morning.

From the HardBall On-Line Staff Reporters and Editor Steve Lamontia

50 National, Tempe Diablo Stadium - Team Victory 5, Boston Wolfpack 3

Will Flynt threw a complete game and Oscar Duran had two hits and two RBI to lead Team Victory to a 5-3 win Friday over Boston WolfPack at Tempe Diablo Stadium for the 50 National title at the MSBL World Series. Victory, which also had a two-hit game from Manny Salinas, scored single runs in the second and third and plated two runs in the sixth to take 4-0 lead after losing twice to the WolfPack during the week. Flynt allowed one hit through six innings before the WolfPack scored three runs in the eight. The left-hander allowed eight hits, struck out five and walked one for the win.

50 Central, Maryvale Stadium – Waikiki Beach Boys 13, Rochester Red Wings 8

MVP Jorge Flores went 4-4, stole four bases and scored three times to lead the Waikiki Beach Boys to a 13-8 win over the Rochester Red Wings in the 50 Central Division MSBL World Series Championship at Maryvale Park in Phoenix. It was the third consecutive championship game for the Beach Boys, a Los Angeles-based team that lost in 2014 and 2015. Waikiki led 8-1 after four innings, but the Red Wings scored twice in the seventh and added four in the eighth to narrow the gap. Tony Covarrubias pitched a complete game to earn the win, while Ron Watson suffered the loss, allowing seven runs in four innings.

MSBL / MABL National Website Affected By Internet Outage

By Staff Writer

A number of popular websites, like Twitter and Netflix went down for some users on Friday in what officials are reporting to have been a massive cyber attack. One of those sites was our Pointstreak server, which contains all of the data for scores and standings for the WS teams. Needless to say this created quite a buzz and caused the phones to light up at the WS office. The crisis ended about 4:00pm when the websites came back on line. But not to worry if it happens again. We will simply print more hard copies of the Daily News!

50 Cactus Upper 'Ring' Division, Tempe Diablo Stadium -- Auburn Braves 17, Long Island Yankees 0

The Braves looked strong in all facets of the game by swinging the bats well, playing excellent defense and getting a great pitching performance from Terry Callahan who went the distance earning a shut-out and clinching the Cactus Upper 'Ring' Division championship. Greg Yardley was the star on offense for the Braves batting four for four with three doubles, four runs and two RBI.

50 Cactus 'Wind Shirt' Division, Maryvale Stadium - Long Island Panthers 9, Red Deer Legends 5

Good things happen to those who wait. The Long Island Panthers, no hit after five, rallied to beat the Red Deer Legends 9-5 in a 50 Cactus 'Wind Shirt' Division MSBL World Series Championship game. Greg Goodman managed the Panthers, 5-3, a team with players from nine states. Southpaw Rob Heinemann, a retired police officer, started and earned the win for Long Island, leaving the game in the seventh with a 6-3 lead. Lefty Harold Northcott started for Red Deer, a team managed by Blair Hanna. The team is located between Calgary and Edmonton. Northcott dominated until the sixth when the Panther's finally broke through. Trailing 3-0 with one out, the Panther's Mike Gonzalez ended Northcott's no-hitter with a line drive to right center. It was just the beginning. After Bruce Grossman and Heinemann singled, Ron Daniel reached on an error. Randy Kleiman got hit by a pitch to make the score 3-2. Northcott left the game after six and the game got worse for Red Deer. The Panthers rallied again in the seventh, this time scoring four runs off reliever Keith Szautner, who suffered the loss. Mike Baltieri knocked Szautner out of the game with a two-run, line drive single to right field to put Long Island ahead 5-3. Goodman singled to start the rally, Alden Steifel executed a SAC bunt and Gary Dover reached on a single. Angelo Lees tied the score at three, scoring Goodman with another hit. Billy Dew singled as well. But Baltieri's rope to right put the Panther's ahead for good.
