19th Year of Father & Son Games - Playoff Start Today!

73+ South Dakota Rushmores - 73+ Division Champions

From the HardBall On-Line Staff Reporters and Editor Steve Lamontia

USA Volkers 12, Chicago TSP Fire 0 - Salt River Diamondback Complex -

65+ American Division - Jimmy Allen of the Volkers dealt a gem as they shut out the Fire 12-0. Allen allowed only four hits through nine innings as he kept the Fire doused. When the Fire would manage to get a potential rally started, Allen used his smooth move to pick runners off and end any threat. Allen picked off two runners ending innings. Fred Krause pounded out two doubles and Tom Benedict went 2 for 2 with an RBI for the offensive kudos. The Volkers blew the game open in the fifth when they scored eight runs to the one run lead they established in the first inning for a 9-0 lead. They then added three more runs in the sixth to pad the lead to 12.

Salty Dragons 10, Tucson Toros 4 - Salt River Diamondback Complex

65+ Central 'Ring' Division - The Salty Dragons beat the Tucson Toros 10-4 at Salt River Fields in Scottsdale in the 29th MSBL World Series Championship. The Dragons' roster, a combination of players from Rhode Island and Northern California, made it look easy. They were sparked all week by co-MVP's Ruben Castillo and Bob Tremblay, the Dragon's first two batters. Tremblay went 2-3 with two RBI and Castillo went 1-3 with a walk in the championship game.

65 Central 'Wind Shirt' Division - Joe Barnes threw a complete-game eight-hitter as Elias Bazan pounded out three hits, including a double, and drove in a run as the San Antonio Broncos topped the San Antonio Red Sox, 5-1 on Friday for the 65 Central 'wind shirt' division title. Barnes faced little trouble and had several low-pitch innings against the free-swinging Red Sox. He struck out two and walked three for his second win of the week. San Antonio scored single runs in the second and fourth, but had a three-run seventh on four straight hits off starter Pancho Faula. The Sox lone run came in the eighth when Bill Mitchell doubled home Chuey Munoz.

South Dakota Rushmores 20, San Diego Padres 2
Papago #1 - 73 Over Division Championship Game

Phil Clements pitched a complete game for the Rushmores and was named the MVP. Mike Spratt went 5 for 5 with three singles, two doubles, four RBI and two runs scored.

For the Padres, Jim Lortz went 2 for 3 including a beautiful push bunt, a double, one RBI and a run scored. There were three double plays turned in the game; one by the Rushmores and two by the Padres.

After seven complete innings both teams decided to call it a game. And so the 73+ WB Division wrapped up games for the tournament.
