Rain Interrupts Play On Thursday - Games Re-scheduled For Today

45+ WB Cactus Playoffs On Hold While Rainout Games Get Played

By Tom Prendergast

Well when it rains it pours, and it certainly did so yesterday afternoon and into the evening, raining out several games, including the last three games in the 45+ WB Cactus 1 division. So first thing today we will finish those suspended and rained out games. In a somewhat unusual move for the WS office, we have come up with a revised partial playoff schedule in which some teams will be starting playoff games before all of the pool play games have finished. The tournament director is permitted to use this seldom used adverse weather clause in order to complete the tournament. And to that end, we are playing some 7 inning games (with a 2hr time limit and some semi-final games with a 2hr and 30 minute time limit), a couple 5 inning games and on Saturday, a three inning game. The 45+ WB Cactus Ring semi-finals have been moved to Sunday morning and the championship game has been moved back until 12:30p, while the Wind Shirts championship game will be played on Sunday morning at 9:00a. In order to get all of the 25+ games played, several teams are playing 3 games today and a couple are playing condensed games on Saturday morning. This will certainly be a test of every teams pitching and bench strength.
