MSBL Hosts the Western Style Bar B Que Tonight at Tempe Diablo

35+ Division Wrap Up Pool Play Today - 18+ Divisions In Full Swing!

By Tom Prendergast

Tonight the annual Western Barbeque takes place on the left field concourse at Tempe Diablo Stadium. Every player received a ticket to this event when they registered. If you don't have a ticket ask your manager and if you need additional tickets stop by the MSBL WS office.

Our website is fantastic when it comes to relaying information and posting scores in real time. However if it has a drawback it's when it sorts the standings. Because it sorts on wins and least runs allowed, it doesn't sort according to head to head games or when we award an extra point for teams that play an upper division opponent. The official standings are the ones we post in this newsletter and they include a red number if a team was awarded an extra point. And it doesn't take into account multiple divisions - for example the 50+ Cactus 1 & 2. For first round playoff pairings the cross over games consisted of division 1 teams playing division 2 teams. And so the seedings for this round was based on where the team finished in the standings. Even though your team might have had a better record than a team from the other division, for our purposes the order of finish determined your seeding in the first round. During the playoff round, the higher seed will always play the lower seed in each round.
