35+ WB Division Playoffs Start Today With Very Even Competition

Cooler Temperatures Expected Today With The High in the Mid 80's

By Tom Prendergast

The first set of championship games takes place today as the 70's play their finals at the Riverview Complex in Mesa, while the 50+ divisions square off at Tempe Diablo Stadium, Hohokam and Riverview. In all, 7 championships will be played today. Across town at the Maryvale Complex and Papago the 35+ playoffs will be played. The final standings in these divisions were extremely close and competitive. And the 18+ divisions wrap up their pool play games today. For the teams on the bubble, most of the time a playoff berth comes down to least runs allowed. So in this tournament, a good defense, is always important.

Last night at Tempe Diablo Stadium the MSBL/MABL Welcome Western Barbbque drew a big crowd, with a complimentary dinner and vendors offering some great WS specials. On the field the Louisville Slugger Warriors were recognized by Athalonz CEO, Tim Marcison who presented each member of the team with a brand new pair of turf shoes. Throughout the week these players impressed everybody who watched them play and their approach to the game along with their positive "can do attitude" was simply outstanding! These young men are an inspiration to all of us and we're hoping they can return to next year's MSBL World Series.
