30th MSBL / MABL World Series Comes To A Close!

45+ WB National OC Sox pitcher, Vic Darenbursch picked up the 6-0 championship game victory at Tempe Diablo Stadium on Saturday and was named the MVP of the tournament.

Championship game summaries by HardBall Online reporters

25+ Mountain Division: San Diego Athletics 10, Westside Bandits 2

A balanced offensive attack propelled the San Diego Athletics to a 10-2 victory over the Westside Bandits from Los Angeles. Tom Hill and Matt Cordaro both drove in a pair, while Garret Nimedez, Steve Wyland, and championship game MVP Jimmy Davis scored a pair of runs. Davis had a 3-for-4 day at the plate in support of starting pitcher Henry Buenrostro's seven strong innings on the mound, allowing just two runs on seven hits. The Bandits runs were driven in by Danny Catalan and Eddie Murray.

25+ Central Division: Tucson Longhorns 8, Rhode Island Brewers 4

The Longhorns jumped out to a 6-2 lead after the first inning and managed to hold off a scrappy Brewers club who chipped away at the lead but were unable to even the score. Longhorns starter Steve "Alex" Morales pitched seven innings before Octavio Flores came in for a three-inning save en route to championship game MVP honors. Jovany Valenzuela and J.R. Roman led the Longhorns' offense with a pair of RBIs. Will Dawson pitched 7 1/3 innings of stellar relief for the Brewers, scattering six hits while allowing two runs, while Dave Bushnell went 4-for-4 with a double and three singles, an RBI and a run scored.

25 Cactus Division: Des Moines Bruins 11, Albuquerque Desert Trout 2

Starting pitcher Matt Pennings allowed just five hits and struck out 11 leading the Des Moines Bruins to their first championship in Arizona. Jake Epsteen led the charge on offense for the Bruins driving in four runs along with a triple. Tanner Linden went three for three with an RBI for the Bruins as well.
